A man, about 5'6", wearing a guanaco who robbed a bank at Pass Christian, about 12 miles from the highway from Alabama, Mississippi and into Louisiana, taking the lone gunman in a model green and white car. Tuesday afternoon no trace of the man or his getaway car had been found.

The man entered the branch at 12:15 p.m. when no customers were present and ordered the tellers to "be quiet and it's easy."

The employees said the man used a gruff voice and punctuated his commands by waving a silver pistol. They said he pulled a second pistol from a coat pocket.

The gunman demanded the money from the cash drawers and the tellers handed it over to him. He stuffed it into a pocket he brought with him.

Miss Catherine Purchner, one of the employees, said the gunman turned the gun at us as he cracked the window where our car was."

Bank teller John Furr said he thought the man was joking at first.

But Furr changed his mind when the thief pointed the pistol at me and told me to get it (the money) out.

The money taken by the thief was all in cash and in bills of various denominations, bank officials reported.

The other teller present was Miss Orelia Courtney.

During the holding, a customer Mrs. Margaret Randolph, of Gulfport entered the bank.

Mrs. Randolph said the gunman told me to come in. He talked in a gruff voice."

She said that she was frightened and did not move from the lobby until the man left the bank.

The three employees told police the man appeared to be about 40 years old, and stood about five feet, 10 inches tall. He wore a gray, narrow-brimmed hat and appeared to have graying hair.

The employees saw the holdup man enter the green car with a white top and speed away.

Interesting Programs Planned By Mississippi Hospital Association

Members of the local Hancock General Hospital Women's Auxiliary are looking forward with great interest to attendance of some of the interesting programs which have been planned by the Mississippi Hospital Association for June 20th through June 22 in Biloxi, at the Buena Vista Hotel.

Of special interest to Bay St. Louis will be the participation in the program of our local people, namely Mrs. Alvah P. Smith, president of our local Auxiliary, who will give the welcoming address; the style show to be presented by John Bell, importer, former well known resident, and the invocation which will be given by J. C. Liveridge, Pass Christian.

It is expected that many will attend the opening Welcome Party which will be held at 5:00 p.m. on Monday in the Council Suite of the Buena Vista Hotel.

"The Late George Apley" To Be Presented At Little Theatre Three Nights

"The Late George Apley" a three act play by George S. Kaufman and John P. Marquand to be presented by The Bay St. Louis Little Theatre for three nights commencing Thursday, June 23rd, is a distinguished and entertaining portrayal of Boston society as well as a delightful piece of Americana.

With charming theatricality and gentle spoofing "The Late George Apley" presents with disarming candor, the customs (it is questionable whether it would be advisable to use the word "manners") of not only Boston but any municipality in the United States that has existed long enough to give birth to a unique tradition and feeling of its own. It might be Philadelphia—Chicago—San Francisco—New Orleans or even Bay St. Louis. Each has its "Apleys."

The imposing cast of sixteen Little Theatre players, under the exacting direction of Evelyn Griffith, is rounding out several weeks of intense rehearsal and are anxiously waiting for the curtain next Thursday night. Tickets for the three remaining plays of the 1960 Little Theatre season, including "The Late George Apley" will be on sale at the Boardman Avenue playhouse on the nights of June 23, 24 and 25. The price is $3.75 for adults and $2.00 for children. Curtain time 8:15 p.m.

Three Youths Are Injured in Automobile Accident Saturday

Jeffrey Schultz, August Rauxet III, and Wayne Colson, sustained cuts and bruises when their car went out of control about 10:20 Saturday night on Felicity Street near Joe's Bayou.

The boys were given emergency treatment at Hancock General Hospital. Schultz and Colson were both released and Rauxet was discharged Monday morning.

Sheriff Gerald Price reported the car apparently went out of control when it reached the location where the hard surface ends and entered a stretch of soft sand. The vehicle crashed into brush and trees alongside the road.

Constable Beat 1, H. G. Dean, who was the first to arrive on the scene, stated he found one of the boys in the car and one lying outside the automobile. Both, he reported, appeared in a state of shock, but told him another had run into the woods.

The youth was later found by Deputy Sheriffs Price and Kachler in his home bleeding from the head and apparently in a state of shock.

JUNIOR GARDEN CLUB FOR ENTRIES IN Miss Hospitality Contest

Midnight Monday, June 26, is the deadline for entries in the annual "Miss Hospitality" Contest sponsored by the Travel Department of the Agricultural and Industrial Board.

Fred Bush, Jr., Director of the Board, said that statewide publicity is given each entry but that this cannot be done until the official entry form and photographs of each contestant are received by his office.

The entry form and photos of each girl entering the contest must be sent to the Agricultural and Industrial Board, 1509 State Office Building, Jackson, before such entry becomes official.

Many communities and organizations throughout the state have selected a "Miss Hospitality" entry but still have not forwarded the official entry blank to the A and I Board office, Bush said.

The contest will be held July 6-9 on the Mississippi Gulf Coast with the winner to be crowned by Governor Ross R. Barnett at Biloxi on the night of July 9.

The winner will succeed the current "Miss Hospitality" Miss Sandra Scarbrough of Meadville, and will represent the state at special events throughout the nation during her one-year reign.

BOLL WEEVIL FIGHTING

Farmers have started their annual war on the boll weevil. Mississippi's most costly insect. Control of boll weevil is a never ending fight. It has to be waged every year, and the cost is high. Cotton farmers annually buy millions of tons of chemical sprays and dusts. They have costly spray machinery and furnish either tractor or horse power to operate the machines; and if the boll weevil control is to be successful, it must be done scientifically. There can be no guesswork in doing an efficient and effective job.

KNOCKDOWN KITCHEN

Both salt and fresh water fishing has been tops lately. Speckles are being caught regularly and fresh water fish are striking late in the afternoon. C. C. McDonald, Sr. and Luke Elliott made a nice catch Saturday afternoon.

Soft crabs have also been giving late at night from about 9:30 on. Luke Elliott and his old man rounded up over 100 Friday night. Yep. some of them were nice size.

Speaking of a good time—Better attend the Gulfport Deep Sea Fishing Rodeo, being staged July 1-4. There will be plenty of fun and entertainment for all as well as prizes and good fishing.

You can get information from Box 71, Gulfport, Miss.

Eddie Heath is on vacation just now—know he will be a busy man—fishing, sailing, boating etc.

Dr. Chester Williams, coroner of Baton Rouge, will spend the summer weekends on the Coast at Pass Christian. Doc. Luke Elliott, Phil and Yours Truly had a hot round of golf Sunday A. M.

Another tight match was between John Genin, Bob Flemming, "Sain" St. Amant and Yours Truly. Bob and Sain are beginners but are hard to beat.

Fifteen members of the Board of Directors of the Pass Christian Isles Golf Club were elected last Sunday, they are listed elsewhere in this issue. They are from Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian. A good job can be expected from this group.

Celtic Ash pulled a good one Saturday when he won the Bonton "Big Race" Saturday. Coming from behind he passed the others like they were standing still!

Lt.-Cm. Jerry Zarnow, 8th Naval District, New Orleans, Mr. Zarnow, Sr., New York and Richard H. Thames, caught some nice specimens off Half Moon last week. Mr. Zarnow on his first visit to the Coast, said he really enjoyed the trip. Come again, Pop.

The shrimping season officially starts on June 15, at sunrise—Read the notice published elsewhere in this paper. Good news to all fishermen—live bait should be plentiful.

INCREASED BOATING SPOT—
HIGHEST NEED FOR WATER SAFETY

The growing popularity of boating and the steady expansion of water facilities spotlight the importance of safety programs in this key area of Mississippi recreation. Mississippi boating enthusiasts can profitably keep in mind these simple rules recommended by national experts in water safety: Use only the size motor designed for the boat; wear life preservers when riding; carry only the number of people the boat is designed to hold; have a can or something with which to bail out excess water; carry along extra paddles in case the motor goes dead; take along as extra can of gas; use caution when approaching other craft or when docking or beaching a boat.

TAKE SHELTER FROM LIGHTNING

Last year, ten Mississippians were struck dead by lightning. Chances are that others will fall victims of lightning this summer too. There isn't any foolproof, practical means of escaping this scary phenomenon of nature but exercising common sense and observing a few precautions will help to keep a person alive during thunderstorms. From May to October, the thunderheads build up, particularly in late afternoon. Lightning will occasionally flash close at hand from out of nowhere, but usually the oncoming cloud can be spotted soon enough to warn the cautious. If near a substantial building, get inside. In an open area, make yourself a low target by sitting or lying down, don't be too proud to take cover in a ditch if the bolts start striking close. A closed car is an ideal shelter.

Who wants this in the lineup? It's no wonder Chevrolet is the most popular car in the whole U. S. All five Chevy wagons, 6 and 7 passengers, are wider where wagons should be wide—with comfortable seating space that becomes up to 92 cubic feet when folded down.

The new 1960 Chevys feature a unique adjustment for five seats in all the things that are making Chevrolet first choice: no. 1 passenger car.
